LUXE LIFE

"I only follow one idea: to be elegant, to be simple," says Piero Lissoni, whose new Ritz-Carlton Residences in Miami Beach are the world-renowned Italian architect's first full-scale project in the US. Situated on Lake Surprise, the luxury residential development, due to be completed in 2016, includes two-to five-bedroom homes with European-inspired kitchens and baths featuring Gaggenau and Boffi appliances. www.theresidencesmiamibeach.com
